

What to do if you reside at an address where an official ballot is sent to another voter who no longer lives there -

You can help by writing on the envelope

NO LONGER AT THIS ADDRESS

and place the unopened ballot back in the receptacle for the postal carrier. The Cape May County Board of Elections will follow up and when possible, will update the voter registration system.